

Belgian Vertical Distribution Box Manufacturer

AI Overview

Belgium has several manufacturers and suppliers of vertical distribution boxes, including Emega and Bos Elektro, offering certified and customizable solutions for industrial and construction applications.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Emega is a Belgian company active in industrial electrical installations for high, medium, and low voltages. They have over 40 years of experience in construction, maintenance, and electrical distribution systems, making them a reliable source for vertical distribution boxes and related equipment (Europages) . Bos Elektro specializes in solid rubber distribution boxes suitable for construction and industrial use. Their products comply with EN-61439-4 standards and are KEMA/DEKRA approved, ensuring high quality and safety. They offer a range of amperages from 32A to 630A and provide customization and personal advice for specific project requirements (Bos Elektro) .

Additional Considerations

When selecting a vertical distribution box manufacturer in Belgium, consider the following:

- Certification and Compliance: Ensure the boxes meet European standards such as EN-61439-4 for safety and reliability.
- Customization Options: Some suppliers, like Bos Elektro, offer tailored solutions for specific industrial or construction needs.
