Overview

The Ministry of Education has implemented student assessments across levels from primary to secondary, years 1 to 9 which are based on the National Standard which meets international standards, specifically the Brunei Darussalam Literacy and Numeracy National Standard, BDLNS. The grading system in Brunei for high secondary education (often referred to as 'O' Levels and 'A' Levels in the Bruneian context) follows a structured scale that aligns closely with British standards, given Brunei's education system's historical ties to the UK. However, there are specific nuances. Grading scales and grade conversion information for Brunei, including percentage ranges and grade point equivalents. Student Assessment Tracker (SAT) is the national assessment developed by CAU to measure students' proficiency in reading, writing and numeracy skills and science. - Primary Education is 6 years (ages 6-12) Grades 1-6.
